Mike Davies joins College Hill

International business communications consultancy College Hill has appointed former Bell Pottinger Corporate & Financial senior Director Mike Davies.

Mike will initially join the Industrials team but will provide expertise to a number of teams at the Tower Hill based practice.

The 44-year-old father-of-two advised clients across a wide range of sectors during his three years at Bell Pottinger, including: Richemont, Hansard Global, Evolution Group, Principal Capital, Chagala Group, Trikona Trinity Capital, Axon Group, Chime Communications, Hogg Robinson and Artumas Group.

He has also headed up investor relations and had significant input to corporate communications at The Rank Group, Invensys and 3i Group.

Commenting on his appointment, Mike said: "I am really excited to join College Hill. It is a fast growing, dynamic business which offers clients a genuine breadth and depth of expertise both domestically and internationally."

College Hill MD Donna Zurcher added: "We are delighted to bring on board someone of Mike's calibre and experience.

"He's got a great reputation and will lend further strength to our company as we continue to grow our business. We are all excited to be working with him."
